Of Extended Care Facility

Open House at Mercy Hospital this Saturday

The new Mercy Hospital Extended Care Facility in Grayling will be formally opened Saturday June 20, 1970 with brief dedication ceremonies and an open house, according to Sister Mary Hilda, R.S.M., Administrator.

The $1.2 million new building includes a two floor addition to the East side of the original hospital building which was constructed in 1957. The Extended Care Facility will provide for an additional 40 beds for those persons not in need of the intensive care normally exercised in a hospital, but still in need of less intensive care prior to their return to their homes.

Mercy Hospital's Extended Care Facility is one of the first extended care facilities expressly connected with a hospital. As patients move from the hospital to the extended care beds, the effect will be a faster turnover in hospital beds and shorter waiting lists.

According to Sister Mary Hilda, attending the dedication ceremonies will be a representative of the Grand Rapids Diocese, city, county and state officials.

The public is invited to attend the open house which begins at 1:00, Saturday afternoon, June 20, 1970, at the new Mercy Hospital Extended Care Facility in Grayling.

Consumer Power to Defer Cabin Site Leasing on AuSable

Consumers Power Company told the Department of Natural Resources Commission today that cabin site leases on a nine-mile stretch of the AuSable River will continue to be deferred so long as "a new public awareness continues to result in litter and pollution control on the river."

The announcement was made by W. L. Reid, manager of land and right of way for the utility. The utility several months ago proposed to issue 25 cabin site leases on 10-acre sections for the announced purpose of assisting its efforts to clean up that part of the river. This would have placed recreation homes on an average of one site per three-quarters of a mile on 18 miles of land fronting on the AuSable between Mio and Alcona hydroelectric dams. The company said 30 years of experience shows that leaseholders help control litter by others rather than causing it.

Mr. Reid said his company was in full accord with a proposal by the Department of Natural Resources to exchange a section of the AuSable riverland in Alcona County for property in state forests required by Consumers Power.

"The new public awareness," Mr. Reid said, "is important for the people who use Consumers Power property for recreation. In this example, one part of the river property will become the property of the State of Michigan and will continue to be available for public use. And we will defer limited cabin-site leasing on the remaining land between Mio and Alcona hydroelectric facility so long as we are certain the litter and pollution is really under control."

He cited as evidence of the "new awareness" the efforts of private citizens and groups to clean up the river. "Crawford County," he said, "has already received an award for the successful enactment of a Green Strip Zoning ordinance affecting the AuSable. Mentor township is presently working on a similar ordinance. These ordinances coupled with an awareness of the problems of maintaining this prime recreational property is resulting in noticeable public effort to avoid littering and pollution as well as efforts to remove existing refuse."

District Court Action

Cases appearing before Judge Francis L. Walsh, in the 83rd District Court last week were:

Henry Dever, Jr., 40, of Wyoming, Mich., pleaded guilty to a charge of D.U.I.L. He was assessed fine and costs of $123.00 and two days in jail.

Franklin Coggswell, 35, of Detroit was found guilty by trial by court on a charge of failure to have car under control and paid fine and costs of $15.00.

Giles Stanley, 34, Houghton Lake, pleaded guilty to a charge of D.U.I.L. He paid fine and costs of $143.00.

In a trial by jury, Clinton Stuart, 47, Grayling, was found guilty to a charge of furnishing to a minor. He was given 60 days in jail plus $78.00 cost and an additional 10 days if costs are not paid.

Wayne M. Hayes, 23, Grayling received 14 days in jail when he pleaded guilty to a D & D charge.

Gary Jokinen, 30, Grayling pleaded guilty to driving under the influence of liquor. He was assessed fine and costs of $103 and sentenced to two days in jail.

Jokinen pleaded innocent to a disorderly person charge and demanded a trial by court. He was released on a $100.00 personal recognizance bond.

Three Saginaw youths were arraigned Thursday, June 11 for the purpose of setting bond on charges of possession of marijuana.

Bond of $3,500 was set for Kim S. Crawford, 18, with bond of $2,500 was set on Allen D. Schilbner, 20, and Robert C. Schulz, 19.

They were ordered to appear in district court Tuesday, June 16 at 9:30 a.m. The three were apprehended in Lovell's Township by Crawford County Sheriff's deputies.

Three Parties On Primary Ballot

LANSING — There will be no new entries or any surprises as voters will be able to choose between three parties in Michigan's primary election August 4 and five parties in the November general election, Secretary of State James M. Hare has disclosed.

The five party choices in November is two less than in 1968 when an all-time high of seven parties were on the ballot. Besides the two traditional major parties, Republican and Democrat, the other parties qualifying for a spot in November were the American Independent party, the Socialist Workers, and Socialist Labor. Two parties which qualified in 1968 — New Politics and Prohibition — did not qualify this year.

Minority parties must gain at least one percent of the votes cast for the successful secretary of state to automatically qualify for a spot on the general election without collecting new qualifying petitions.

The American Independent Party, by virtue of its strong showing in the last general election, qualified for both the primary and general elections and did not have to file qualifying petitions.

The largest number of minor parties to ever qualify in a Michigan election was in 1938 when the Socialist, Socialist Labor, American, Commonwealth, Protestants United and Square Deal parties were on the ballot.

Six minority parties were on the 1936 ballot, the last time the Farmer-Labor Party appeared, and in 1932, when the Communist Party was on the Michigan ballot.

The Communist Party racked up its biggest vote in 1932 — 7,906. It was listed for the last time in 1940 when it polled only 2,387 votes.

Hare said by far the biggest vote recorded by a so-called minor party in Michigan history was the 331,968 compiled by the American Independent Party in 1968.

Previous high was by the National Progressive Party in 1912.

Earmarked for Streets

Set City Income Tax Vote Here on Aug. 4

The City Council at their Monday night meeting last week passed a resolution to present a city income tax proposal to Grayling voters for the second time at the general primary election to be held on August 4.

A second proposal will also be presented to Grayling voters at the August 4 election to determine if the City of Grayling shall borrow $210,000 and issue its general obligation bonds for the purpose of improvements to the sewage disposal system of the city.

The city income tax amount being asked is, 1 percent tax on residents and 5 per cent tax upon non-residents working in Grayling. This is the same proposal defeated 212 to 178 in an election held last February.

A provision has been written into this new proposal that would legally "earmark" the expected $40,000 revenue for city road and street work specifically.

The $210,000 first phase bond issue to be voted on is for an estimated total $466,000 comprehensive sewage system for the city.

These bonds will finance a 15-acre aerated irrigation type lagoon system on Landfill Road, and would make possible the removal of the present disposal facility from the AuSable River bank, and thereby reduce the possibility of organic pollution to the river.

William Valusek, city manager, stated the system is on a total 60-acre site, and its capacity could easily be doubled. The present plans call for a complex that could serve about 5000 persons plus commercial and industrial interests.

Little League

By Harry Miller

In what may be the closest League race in years, the Moose Lodge and American Legion teams won two games each last week.

The undefeated Legion nine sneaked past the Bank 7-2 and 4-3. Sharp pitching and alert defensive play made the Legion the number one team in the League. The Bank played well and are getting stronger as the season comes closer to tourney time.

The Moose slapped the Bear twice. Scott McClain was strong with 10 strikeouts, winning 18-2. John Rolfe slammed the door on the Bear 7-5. The Moose hit well and sparkling fielding proving they are also a team to be dealt with. The Bear never gave up and are fast developing into a fine team.

It will be exciting to watch the Moose and Legion as they both have their eyes on the championship.

The minor league games started this week at 4:00. For fun and excitement watch these teams in action.

Don't forget all major league teams, your All Star team will be selected soon. Details about the tournament next week.

PIGEON RIVER AUDUBON MEETING

Area swans will be the program given for the Pigeon River Audubon Club, by W. L. Gelston, Superintendent of Traverse Bay Intermediate School District from Traverse City.

The large white mute swans that make their homes in the Northern One Third of Lower Michigan, and have increased from a mere handful of privately owned birds in the early 1940's to several hundred now, have been the subject of intensive study and research by W. L. Gelston.

Mr. Gelston is an outdoor man, and with his family has spent a lot of time camping, hunting, fishing, studying rocks, skin diving, mapping old logging camps and at one time trapped predators for the State.

With his background, Vice President, Al Beaulieu, asked and secured Mr. Gelston to present his swan story to the Pigeon River Audubon Club, Thursday, June 18th at 8:00 p.m. in the meeting room of the Gaylord State Bank. Light refreshments will be served. President Bill Pearson welcomes the public and bring a friend.

Most recently, Beatty, a Certified Public Accountant, was associated with Yeo and Yeo, Certified Public Accountants, and served as Resident Manager of the firm's Alma, Michigan office. His initial experience in public accounting was gained in the Detroit office of Lybrand, Ross Bros. and Montgomery.

Beatty is a graduate of Bowling Green State University of Ohio where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. He received his Michigan Certified Public Accountants Certificate in 1961. Prior to attending college he spent two years in the Navy, serving in Korea and Japan.

In announcing the appointment, Fred Bear stated that the company has been conducting a search for a man to fill the new Controller post. "We feel very fortunate in obtaining Al Beatty — a man so well qualified by training and past experience. He and his wife, Connie, and their three children, Lorne, 15, Gary, 13, and Heather, 7, will be moving to Grayling from St. Louis, Michigan within the next week."

Crawford County Recreational Activities

Might be a bit premature but Trout fishermen should keep their eyes open for the time of the Yellow Bug. This lure has started to take Trout on the South Branch. Nice hatches of Brown Drakes are also showing up on the South Branch.

There has also been some Greeny Worm fishing developing along the AuSable Main Stream. Yellow Drakes and Stone Flies have come on hard again on the Main Stream and evening fishing on those portions of the Quality Fishing water where the hatches have been occurring has been good.

This is the beginning of canoe season on the 200 miles of canoeing trails in Crawford County. The Upper Manistee, the AuSable, and the South Branch are normal and clear. Early morning canoeists have a wonderful opportunity of viewing birds and wildlife that abound along the river banks.

It's fawn season in the northland, and early morning and evening trail drivers can turn to the sight of the Mother Moose and their spotted-custard spring.

PRESERVE OUR ENVIRONMENT

New Wakeley Bridge Site a Reality

Earl Longworth, Chairman of the Crawford County Board of Commissioners, stated that negotiations are being finalized on a lease site from Consumers Power Co. for a new canoe boat, public access and exit in the vicinity of the Wakeley Bridge area on the AuSable River.

Working since last January and representing the Crawford County Parks Commission were Longworth, Bernard Fowler, Grayling Township Supervisor, and Al Westervelt of the Canoe Livery Association. Representing Consumers Power Co. were B. A. Holcomb and James Baines of the Land and Right of Way Department.

In the preliminary evaluation of the site were the U. S. Soil Conservation District, the AuSable Watershed Study Council, the AuSable Property Owner's Association, The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce, The Grayling Canoe Livery Association, and the Crawford County Road Commission.

Longworth stated that both he and Fowler have been trying for a year to find a new site that could be used in the vicinity of Wakeley Bridge because of the hazardous and crowded weekend conditions at the Bridge. The Wakeley Bridge pullout is the second most widely used by canoeists and boat fishermen on the AuSable River.

The new site will be ready for the 1971 summer river traffic, and will have water, sanitary facilities, picnic area, and parking facilities. The lease arrangement will be with Consumers Power Co. and the Crawford County Parks Commission.

GREAT TIME TO LICENSE BOATS

LANSING — If you own a boat which is 16 feet or longer and you use it in the Great Lakes or connecting waterways, now's a great time to get it licensed for the 1970 boating season.

Michigan's boat plate law applies to all crafts whether they are motor-driven or not so long as they qualify in length and are used in the Great Lakes or connecting rivers and lakes.

Boat plates must be purchased each year. They may be obtained at selected Secretary of State branch offices, usually the larger branch offices or branches close to affected waterways.

Michigan's boat plate law... in effect since 1911... is not to be confused with the state's motorboat registration law in which all motorboats must be registered during three-year cycles.

Cost of plates, according to Secretary of State James M. Hare, range all the way from $5.00 for boats 16 to 20 feet to tonnage rates for boats longer than 65 feet.

Many boats qualify for both boat plates and motorboat registration, says Hare.

The boat plate law applies to sailboats if they are 16 feet or longer and use the Great Lakes or connecting waters. The only exceptions are canoes of a length with motors of less than two horsepower.

Boat plates, notes Hare, go with the boats if they are sold or transferred. The boat plate registration is transferred to the new owner at no cost.

LaChappelle - Harwood Speak Vows

Linda Lee LaChappelle, daughter of Mrs. Betty LaChappelle of 800 Park and William LaChappelle of 405 Chestnut, and Minard James Harwood, son of Mrs. Willard Harwood, 205 State, and the late Mr. Harwood, were united in marriage at St. Mary's Church on Saturday, May 23.

Father Louie Ivandic officiated at the one o'clock High Mass before some 100 guests. Mrs. Ralph Hoffman presided at the organ. White gladioli and white mums decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza and venise lace, fashioned with an empire bodice which was accented with satin ribbon at the wedding ring neckline and cuffs, with embroidered bishop sleeves. Lace and ribbon trimmed the hem of the softly belled skirt and the detachable tunnel train. An organza Dior bow held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and baby yellow roses.

Maid of honor was Joy Rasmussen. She wore a gown of light yellow whipped cream with an empire bodice, accented with darker yellow satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white daisies surrounding yellow baby roses.

Bridesmaids were Roxie Fisher and Monica Stephan. Their gowns were styled similar to the maid of honors, except they were of mint green. Their bouquets were also of white daisies and yellow baby roses.

Jacqueline LaGrow was the flower girl. She wore a mint green gown similar to the bridesmaids and carried a basket filled with white daisies and pink carnations.

The groom's attendants were John Mathewson of West Branch, who served as best man. Groomsmen were Eddie Campbell of Flint and Doug Stephan. Bill and Kerry Harwood were ushers. Jason Rasmussen was the ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. LaChappelle chose a beige dress, styled with empire waist and embroidered top. Her shoes and purse were of beige and brown. The groom's mother wore a beige shift dress with white accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at St. Mary's Hall, which was decorated in light green and white for the occasion. Following a wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula, the bride and groom are making their home at 800 Park.

The bride attended school at St. Mary's in Grayling, St. Joseph's in Bay City and graduated from Grayling High in 1969. The groom also attended Grayling High School.

Out of town guests were from Houghton Lake, Harrisville, Wyandotte, Taylor, Lovells, St. Johns, West Branch, Flint and Ohio.

Harbour of Harmony Show at Houghton Lake June 19-20

"Hawaiian Holiday" will be the theme of the Houghton Lake Sweet Adelines' Fourth Annual Harbour of Harmony show Friday and Saturday, June 19-20 in the Houghton Lake Playhouse.

Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. Mary Ann Mackey, public chairman, described it as "A two-part show in which the first act will have excitement and gaiety as visitors sample life on the islands. The second part will permit all to join the natives in the imaginative staging and costuming of a Hawaiian Hukilao."

Groups to appear on the program are the chorus quartet, "The Realities"; its octet, "The Crazy Eight"; a Houghton male quartet, "The Chord Twisters"; and two specialty acts, "The Roadrunners" and "The Hector Brothers."

Sweet Adelines, Inc., is an international organization that is devoted to singing fourpart harmony without accompaniment. Contributing to the cultural life of the community, its auxiliary purpose is that of supporting community enterprises. The Sweet Adelines perform without charge for many local organizations as well as out-of-town groups.

Tickets for "Hawaiian Holiday" are available from any chorus member and will be on sale at the door.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice yours is the hand that lights your child's face

We've heard so much about the effects of insecurity on the life of a child! It seems urgent to find a picture of security... that elusive ideal that parents want to provide but can never be sure they have.

Notice the importance of the light in our picture. It doesn't really come from that fatherly hand. Someone else has provided the light which links father and son. The father merely stood in that light... and held his son's hand!

Sunday — Father's Day — in hundreds of thousands of churches, earnest fathers will stand in the Light. With their sons they'll worship God... experience again the spiritual understanding of life. See the brightness of that true security reflected in youthful eyes.

Crime Pays Handsomely

HERE'S ONE FOR YOU! The laws in this country are so warped and poorly-administered that even convicts, in one particular case, feel the crook got the best end of the deal, while the honest citizen got the "business" — and in spades!

We are referring to the case recently brought to light in which an elderly couple had rigged a pistol as a booby trap to guard against prowlers and would-be burglars who might seek to visit their humble abode under the cover of darkness and relieve them of their worldly possessions.

A prowler came and the trap worked to perfection — almost.

It all back-fired when the gun fired and the prowler was struck in the leg by the revolver slug. Being quite put out over such mistreatment while trying to make a dishonest buck, the prowler hauled the couple into court, sued them for and get this $35,000.00 — and made it stick!

As a result the court sold the couple's home for $10,000.00 and awarded it to the thief as part-payment on the judgement. The lucky couple now only owe the crook a balance of $25,000.00, and hopefully the money can be raised or the elderly couple may well wind up in jail.

THROUGH ALL OF THIS, convicted criminals confined in the penitentiary of the couple's home state have taken up a collection to help them out financially. The men behind bars raised a total of $100.00, which will be turned over to the man and woman who were robbed in one of the most asinine miscarriages of justice in modern times.

The story has two morals: First, if you're a crook and you don't succeed in getting what you want by breaking into someone's home in the dark of night, take it to court, they will help you steal it legally and you don't have to take any chances. Secondly, if you are an honest, every-day citizen and someone attempts to burglarize your home, for your own protection, help him all you can. Think of it this way: if a burglar was attempting to carry out your television set by himself and in so doing (heaven forbid!) sustained a hernia or fell down the steps and broke a leg, you could be in real trouble, even $35,000.00 worth!

MEA - - New Political Power

A new political force to be reckoned with is emerging in Michigan the Michigan Education Association.

Goaded mainly by the relatively recent new legal freedom to engage local school boards in collective bargaining, the MEA apparently is headed all the way down the line in political involvement as well as economic involvement.

The pattern for the MEA planners is obviously the UAW and the AFL-CIO.

Few school districts—and few taxpayers who foot the bills for local school operations—have escaped the new teacher militance at the bargaining table.

An interesting and relevant statistic indicates that in 1966-67, there were four teacher strikes in Michigan, while between July 1, 1969 and Jan. 31, 1970, there were 45.

These figures reflect the new teacher muscle, unshackled primarily by the Public Employee Relations Act of 1967. Teacher negotiations in most districts of the state today are as crucial to school tax costs as millage votes, bond issues, tax rates and other intricate parts of the local taxation-school support picture.

Now, according to the recent state MEA convention, the teachers are going sled-length into the political arena.

At the April convention, MEA formed its own Michigan Education Political Action Council, patterned after labor's potent COPE. MEA also doubled its 1970-71 budget, jumping individual dues from $47 to $82. More staff will be hired, both for political education chores and for negotiating assistance to local teacher groups.

Any statewide organization which has local chapters throughout the state can be a powerful political group and MEA reaches into most school districts of Michigan with its local education association.

Teachers, through the educational requirements for their positions, have been exposed to more formal training than most of the population.

And, through selective discussion in the classroom of the issues of the day, members of the MEA can have a whale of a political wallop as their students discuss their lessons around the dinner table with their parents.

All in all, the MEA and its local arms are in a tremendous position to exert real influence in political affairs in Michigan.

It appears that the leadership of MEA has become aware of these potentials.

Whether it will be good or bad depends on what the MEA does with the weapons at its disposal.

And, it seems to me, whether the teachers' group really becomes a lasting power in Michigan politics rests in the last analysis with the leadership and membership at the local association level.

If the local groups want to influence political decisions—that is, public policy decisions—they have the framework, the knowledge, and the resources at their disposal.

But unless the local education association is willing to do the spadework at the local level, the parent organization at the state level will not be able to realize the full potential of its influence.

But no matter how you cut it, the emergence of the teachers as an organized political group as well as an organized economic group, could be felt throughout the state in much the same way that the more aggressive local education associations have played an increasingly dominant role in local school policies and affairs.

Legislation to Reclassify Marijuana Being Reviewed

Louis M. Sesti, R.Ph., Executive Director of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association, has announced support for legislation currently being reviewed by the Michigan House of Representatives which would reclassify marijuana as a "dangerous drug."

Sesti's endorsement followed that of Governor William Milliken, who voiced support of a package of three bills introduced in the House by Rep. Dale Warner of Eaton Rapids.

Marijuana is now classified along with such drugs as heroin, opium and morphine, all of which are narcotic drugs.

In endorsing the controversial legislation, the director of the 3000-member pharmacists' association said that "marijuana has nothing in common with the opiates pharmacologically which would justify their identical classification. If we are ever to approach the problem of drug abuse in a rational manner, we're going to have to pass laws based on scientifically defensible conclusions."

"The major effect of the bills would be to prescribe a misdemeanor penalty for unlawful use or possession of marijuana. Present statutes make such possession a felony, punishable by long-term imprisonment. Many judicial authorities have termed this kind of classification 'unenforceable and self-defeating.'"

"If this legislation is enacted," Sesti stated, "it would provide a vastly more workable legal foundation in dealing with problems associated with the misuse of marijuana. Rather than being faced with imposing a prison sentence on a naive youngster experimenting with a marijuana cigarette, and branding him as a felon for the rest of his life, the courts will be able to take swift and decisive action. This, I think, will act as a deterrent to the illegal possession or use of marijuana to a greater extent than does the present situation."

Sesti pointed out that the proposed reclassification would still provide more stringent controls over the use, possession, and sale of marijuana than are exercised over the vast majority of prescription drugs.

Here's How It Seems To Me

By Lou Cramton

I have missed getting together with you — and it hasn't been because I ran out of things to say.

Clippings and notes are piled up on my desk — piled there as material for several columns if the time to peek them out on this battered typewriter would permit.

But the same thing that is taking up so much of my time — politicking — is, I think, a good argument against my continuing these columns.

I am sure most of you know that I am running for the Republican nomination for state representative from the 103rd legislative district. Anything that I write about now is open to the criticism that I am just campaigning or propagandizing — and I lay my host, the editor open to charges of favoritism — demands for equal space — and so on.

Some one suggested — a friend, no less — that I should keep writing the "column" and buy the space for it — that they were good ads for me. Now that was very flattering — on two counts: one, that he thought the darned, tossed together things were that good and, two, that he thought I had that kind of money. Hard to say which is most flattering.

But short as money is — and I have never had much and I sure have found a lot of new places to put it since hitting the campaign trail — something even scarier is TIME.

I have a lot of people helping me — and more that say they would like to — if we ever got really efficient and gave them chores to do — but there still are more things for me to do — many that only the candidate should do — than there are hours in the day to do them.

So until after the campaign, I will not be submitting these bits of impermanent prose and shared thoughts we have loosely called a column. I have enjoyed the experience of trying to communicate and many of you have enjoyed it, too.

Win or lose, August 4th, I hope your good friend the editor will let me come back and visit with you again.

Meanwhile, how about you giving a little of your time, thought and effort to the party of YOUR choice? See to it that it gets the best possible candidates to represent it in the General election this Fall. You CAN play an important part — if you are willing to give just a little of yourself. You stand to get a lot in return — the best political system of self government the mind of man has ever worked out.

Be seeing you!

"If It Fitz . . ." — Listen Here, America

By Jim Fitzgerald

"America, you have underarm wetness. But I don't care." That's what I'm going to tell America when I go on national television.

Avco Corp will send a camera crew to my home to film me while I talk. Avco will pay the network bill. All I have to do is pay for redecorating the house. Our tattered drapes and flecking paint aren't going to be seen by millions of dust-checking housewives, my wife said.

You probably read the Avco offer. In page ads in hundreds of newspapers, Avco said: "If you have something important to tell America, we'll put you on national television to say it."

It's hard for the little guy to be heard, Avco said. But he should be heard. So Avco is turning over its TV commercial time to "individual Americans like yourself."

Not all of you. In fact, just 50 the first year. I don't know who the other 49 will be. In truth, I must admit that Avco has not yet agreed I should be one of the persons to tell America something important. But the actual inking of the TV pact (that's show biz talk) is just a formality.

"If you have something to say and the guts to say it, write us a letter," Avco said. The Avco brass will decide what is important enough for America to hear. This column is my letter and it can't miss. But, in case I forget, would you please mail it to "An American Speaks, Box 878 New York, N.Y. 10017."

Like I said, America should be assured that underarm wetness does not mean the end of the world. TV commercials have scared America silly of all the wrong things. What could be more appropriate than to correct this through the use of Avco commercials?

It's really not so terrible, America, if you smell or burp or sweat. Girls may like you even if you don't drive a sporty car. You can insist that "Winston's taste good like a cigaret should" is poor grammar without fear of 12 howling men tap dancing on your head.

I even know a woman who had nerve enough to call a repairman to fix her Maytag. She still lives.

So phooey. What we need are commercials warning that Pentagon generals may be hazardous to the health of your 18-year-old son. Each body counted in our military body counts was once a human being who loved and was loved. His family misses him.

You should not judge a man by the length of his hair or the color of his skin. No more "back of the bus." All of us bleeding liberals know that. But the same yardstick should be applied when your daughter picks a date, or a husband. Otherwise, the whole idea is phony and will never get off the ground.

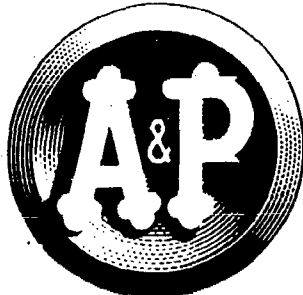

White racism has caused countless problems and misery. But black racism, although more understandable, it just as stupid. The only real hope is that enough black men will forgive and forget. Which is more than many white men deserve.

And until these problems of war and race are solved, everything else is peanuts. Pollution hurts and there's glory on the moon. But first, people must learn how to get along with people.

See you on TV? Don't bet your spray deodorant on it.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) I lost my refund check. Can I get a duplicate?

A) Yes, report this loss to the IRS service center where you filed your return and they will supply the forms needed to apply for a replacement.

Q) What's the deadline for paying my second estimated tax installment for 1970?

A) Second quarter estimated income tax payments should be made by June 15, 1970. Be sure to use the pre-addressed voucher and envelope that came with the Form 1040ES tax package you received in February.

Q) Is it true college students aren't subject to income tax withholding anymore?

A) Last year's tax reform law makes it possible for some students to avoid having income taxes withheld on part-time or summer jobs under certain conditions.

To qualify, the student must have had no Federal income tax liability in 1969 and anticipate none this year. If that is the case, the student should notify his employer. This covers only Federal income tax withholding. Social Security taxes will continue to be withheld.

This provision of the law affects any taxpayer who qualifies such as retired persons and others who may work part-time.

Q) Aren't tax rates supposed to be lower for single taxpayers?

A) Yes, beginning in 1971 tax rates will be lower for single taxpayers. The change will reduce the tax paid by single people to no more than 20 percent greater than what a married couple would pay on this same income on a joint return.

Q) If my son earns too much on his summer job, will I lose my exemption for him?

A) The amount of your child's earnings will not change his dependency status if he is under 19 at the end of the year or was a full-time student for some part of each of five months of the year. In such a case, you may continue to claim his exemption as long as you provide more than half his total support and the other tests are met.

Q) I lost the form I used to deposit the taxes I withheld from my employee's wages. Where can I get more?

A) Contact your local IRS office or service center for Federal Tax Deposit Form 501. When you make your request, give your name, business name, address, and employer identification number. Also indicate the type of tax, tax period and number of forms you need.

Q) My daughter was honored as the best student in her graduating class and was given a $100 savings bond. Is this taxable?

A) If she won the bond for her overall educational record, then it probably is not taxable. Prizes are taxable if the winner had to perform a specific act such as write an essay or do a project.

The general rule is that prizes given in recognition of past accomplishments in educational fields are not taxable if the recipient is selected without action on his part and is not expected to render future services as a condition of receiving the award. The same rule applies for prizes in religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, literary or civic fields.

Grayling Chapter #83 invited Alpena past matrons and patrons to put on 1867 Ritual Degree on May 20. Irene Peterson, Worthy Matron, was initiated into this old fashioned degree team. There were about 130 people present to witness this.

Six people went to Cheboygan on May 22nd to see the Grand Officers exemplify the degrees. Alpena Chapter had Friend's Night on May 28th and invited W. M., Sentinel and Christian Flag Bearer to take part in initiation.

On June 1, fifteen from Grayling went to Gaylord to their Friend's Night. Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, Associate Patron, Secretary and Warden were guests. Three members enjoyed a very interesting Friend's Night at Mackinaw on June 4th.

Wolverine District Association meeting was held on June 8th from 10:00 until 4:30 at Alpena. There were 11 present from Grayling. Sister Leatha Leng opened the morning session and Irene Peterson, W.M., gave the response to welcome. There were 12 Worthy Matrons present to form an honor line for Wolverine officers to go through. Installation of new officers took place in the afternoon and it was decided to hold next year's meeting at Atlanta.

MERCY HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

The Mercy Hospital Auxiliary met last Thursday, June 11. Vice president Theresa Johnson conducted the meeting.

Because the Auxiliary does not meet in July and August, the June meeting is considered the end of the working year and heads of various committees report to the president and members.

In addition to the traditional Silver Tea, there were three very successful card parties, one of which was hosted by ladies from Roscommon and Higgins Lake.

Alice Lozen reported that since inception of the service in mid-January and up to June 1, the Auxiliary has put in 310 hours operating the front desk at the hospital.

Members discussed further the project of lap robes for the patients and were shown patterns for these robes.

It has been agreed that accumulated funds should be spent to help equip a small beauty shop for patients in extended care.

It was decided that the annual picnic should be a potluck affair to be held at Michigan Central Park on Higgins Lake. The date — Aug. 13 at 12:30.

All Auxiliary members are invited to the tea given each year by the wives of officers stationed at Camp Grayling. This year, however, the event will take place in the main dining room at the Polyhedron on Wednesday, July 15, from one to five.

The next regular Auxiliary meeting will be Sept. 10th at 1:30 p.m.

"Safe" Insecticides Recommended

By Willard Besserman
County Extension Director

Diazinon, Sevin and Malathion are three insecticides which are recommended by Dr. William Wallner, Michigan State University entomologist, for use by homeowners.

These three are recommended instead of some of the chlorinated hydrocarbons formally used extensively. They need to be applied more often because they do break down and become ineffective. This is the main reason why they are recommended over the chlorinated hydrocarbons. They do break down, therefore are considered less dangerous to the environment.

Diazinon, sevin and malathion are still poison and should be treated as such. They should be stored where children cannot get at them. They should be used properly.

The Old Timer

"Patience is something you admire in the driver behind you but not in the one ahead."

Instruction for proper use of insecticides for each insect can be obtained from your Cooperative Extension Service.

"Controlling pests of trees and shrubs" is one bulletin which gives the control measures for about twenty different insects that are commonly found on ornamental trees and shrubs.

One insect which some people have reported this spring is the pine sawfly. It defoliates pine trees if not checked in time. In this case malathion or sevin is recommended. Sawfly is not a difficult insect to control, but it can do a lot of damage to your pine trees if not stopped early.

Spruce Gull Aphid is another insect mentioned in the bulletin. This aphid causes the little pineapple looking deformities on the twigs of spruce trees. An application of diazinon in April is recommended to control this insect.

Scale insects go undetected by most home owners. They are found on lilacs and many other plants. They suck juices from the plant and put the plant in a state of low vigor. While the insect is under the scale no insecticide can reach them. Most scale insects hatch in June or July. Right after they hatch is the best time to apply insecticides.

Other bulletins are available which tell how to control ants, kitchen pests, spiders, beetles and flies.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS AS HEARD BY HEARD

Whose News Is News?

Although it has not been titled as such, there seems to be some kind of a war on the press. The extent of it is so great that even the Wall Street Journal recently felt it was a proper subject for the front page.

Liberals, conservatives, hawks and doves, civil rights groups, anti-civil rights groups, union leaders, and anti-union groups, the hippies and the "straights" all charge that the news media are biased. And sometimes a single report on some happening will be subjected to a charge of bias by all these groups. Any news writer who can cover the story, for example, of a labor dispute, and be charged with bias by both the labor leaders and the management is really more than a news writer... he is a ruddy genius.

Perhaps there is a modicum of need for what might be called "truth in news?" But where does this start?

It would be much easier, more effective, and make the newsman's job much more simple if everybody who seeks coverage of their ideas, or actions, would first of all tell the media the truth.

A common habit among bureaucrats is to call in the press and expound their ideas. If the newsmen then print their position word for word, the newsmen are hailed as great, statesmanlike, objective journalists.

But if they follow their professional ethics and get the (National Federation of Independent Business) viewpoint from the opposing side, and include these views in their reporting of the matter, they become biased, sensation-seeking hack writers.

According to the story on this subject by the Wall Street Journal, newsmen were being accused by those who opposed the nomination of Judge Carswell to the Supreme Court on the grounds that they were writing that the nomination could not be stopped.

This, they held to be biased reporting, never inquiring into the question as to whether or not these reporters had made a count of the Senators pro and con for nomination.

Some bureaucrats who are determined that school kids should be bused, take great umbrage when the press reports many parents are opposed to the idea. By also reporting the position of these parents, this is considered indisputable evidence that the writer is biased.

Perhaps the problem is that newspapers have been too gentlemanly in their conduct. It would be interesting to see what the reaction would be if just before election, newspapers generally printed what the candidate for re-election said he would do and stand for in the last campaign, with a full report of what the candidate actually did, or said, on each specific issue. Naturally, the reporting of such facts would quite often be instantly assailed as completely biased.

Candidates Speak To Regional Meeting Of State Employees

Three candidates for the House seat being vacated at the end of this year by Nelson G. Tisdale spoke Friday evening to members of the Michigan State Employees Association in Cadillac.

The district currently represented by Tisdale does not include Cadillac, but Louis K. Cramton, Rodney Parker and Thomas Byron, all of Midland, demonstrated their interest in support from state employees by going outside the 103rd legislative district to make a pitch for their votes.

Parker, speaking first, described his educational background and job experience then left for another meeting in Lake City.

Cramton spoke on two issues he felt were of top importance: Communication — the availability and responsiveness of a representative and his part in getting information on the legislature's activities to the people he represents — and the restructuring of our tax set-up to shift the burden of the operational costs of our public schools off the property tax.

Parker and Cramton are contesting for the Republican nomination for state representative (103rd district) August 4th.

Byron, a Democrat, so far is unchallenged for the Democrat nomination in the Primary contest.

Speaking third, Byron endorsed "parochialism" — "so long as the parochial schools meet all of the same requirements that the public schools do." He stressed the "all" in that proviso, giving it perhaps more emphasis than most "parochial" supporters are apt to be comfortable with.

Byron challenged Cramton to give his views on "parochialism." "Recognizing that many voters in this area will be alienated, I still must say I am opposed to the 'parochialism' bill, Cramton told the group of state employees, "To those who say it is not fair that they be forced to support the school system of their church and the public school system, I can only say (1) you are not forced to do this — it is your choice."

"It is an understandable choice and one that I have great sympathy with. You are able to give your children something that is not available in our public schools and I happen to believe that it is well worth extra money," Cramton continued, "But it would be far less fair if we were to attempt to relieve your admittedly burdensome economic stress and strain by forcing others by law to support not only the public school system that they believe in, but also church and other sponsored school systems that they do not believe in."

"Fairness is not reached by turning the table — indeed all choice would be removed and we all would truly be forced — there would be no element of choice left — to support many more than one school system," Cramton said.

Parker having left early was not a part of the "parochialism" issue discussion. State Senatorial Candidate Marshall Brehms, Cadillac Republican, was present and spoke briefly to the audience on his background and his interest in serving the voters in the district now served by Senator John Toepp. Toepp, giving a graduation address elsewhere, was not present.

The meeting was held in the First National Bank of Cadillac.

201 JAMES ST. GRAYLING

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Paul Molnar are residing at 120 South Maple in Gaylord after honeymooning in Cedar Point, Ohio and Ann Arbor, Mich. the first week of June.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Molnar of the Grayling Colonial Motel, and Mrs. Molnar is the former Maryellen Thaler, daughter of Mrs. Roy E. Hunt and the late Vern Thaler of Gaylord.

Their marriage took place in a candlelight ceremony at the United Methodist Church in Gaylord on May 29th, performed by the Rev. Alfred Fennell.

For the seven o'clock ceremony the bride chose a full-length gown trimmed with Venice lace, styled with Empire bodice, mandarin neckline and chapel sleeves. A Watteau bow held her chapel-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was mantilla style edged in Venice lace. Her flowers were white and blue daisies. Maryellen was given in marriage by her step-father, Roy Hunt. Attendants were Miss Patricia Hubbard, maid of honor, Miss Debra Beebe, and Mrs. Richard Thaler, sister-in-law of the bride. They wore blue dotted Swiss gowns with long full sleeves, the high neckline trimmed in white lace. Picture hats and blue and white daisies completed their costumes.

Best man was Gary Galbraith of Gaylord, the ushers Richard Thaler of Ann Arbor, brother of the bride, and Dennis Cada of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Hunt wore a yellow costume with matching coat and accessories, and Mrs. Molnar pink linen dress and coat with matching accessories. Their corsages were orchids.

The new Mrs. Molnar attended Gaylord Community High School. Her husband attended Kent State University of Ohio, and Kirtland Community College in Michigan.

The 120 guests were from Cleveland, Grayling, Midland, Alpena and Ann Arbor.

Food Stamps Available

Food stamps are available to anyone. If your income is low and you are unable to buy all the food your family needs for a good diet, you should see about joining the Food Stamp Program.

At the present time the federal government provides two types of food distribution programs for the needy in our midst. Persons who work for low wages, are unemployed, employed part time, are on welfare, receive a small Social Security or other type of pension payment and their net family income is too small to provide an adequate food budget may apply for either food stamps or surplus food commodities.

There is no durational requirements so migratory workers may apply for food stamps as soon as they arrive in Michigan and may continue to get food stamps until their income reaches a level to properly feed their families.

At the present time, fifty-seven counties are participating in the food stamp program. Surplus food commodities are available in all other counties. Both of these are Federally funded programs.

PACK 93 NEWS

Boy, did we have sunshine! Our potluck picnic turn out was real good. We could have used a little more shade but I guess you can't win everytime. Bob Larson and his scouts did a real good job setting up our games.

Billy Kellogg received his artist and athlete awards and Scout David Harris his den chief card.

How about Webelos Den 2 and their big camp out! They sure had a jim dandy time! Every Webelo went and all but one father.

They had a ball game in which the fathers got lucky and beat the boys. The boys did all the cooking. This must have been an adventure in itself! There was also hiking, fishing, and a little wading in the river. They played a game called "Find the Webelo Leader dressed in Orange." Mr. Herrick dressed in a pair of bright colored coveralls, hid in the woods. The boys were then supposed to find Mr. Herrick. What he didn't tell them was that he had a camouflage suit under the coveralls. I guess the mosquitoes must have gotten to him first because we never heard who found him!

Don't forget the father and son tank shop tour in July. We'll let you know when.
